(5th June 2016)

It hasn't been rain since I came to Abu Dhabi in April. It is a bit strange for me because the rainy season in Japan starts in June and we have rain almost every day in this season.

So I would like to share the rainy season atmosphere with Illustrations relating to rainy season.

Ramadan has just begun today. Shopping malls and super markets have full of people who come for shopping for Ramadan preparation. Cities are decorated by Ramadan illumination. The atmosphere of Ramadan is just like the year end atmosphere in Japan.

I worked in Japanese school in Malaysia twenty years ago. During Ramadan, non-muslim Japanese students and teachers didn't drink and eat in front of Muslims in consideration of their fasting.

RAMADAN

We held the Ramadan gathering on 1st of June. Islamic teacher Mr. Ahmed gave the lecture on Fasting in Arabic and Abdulla Al Hosani and Abdulla Al Monsoori translated it into Japanese. Japanese students seemed to be ready for giving consideration for Muslim friends who are fasting.

Mr. Ahmed presented Fanus to all of the students at the end of the lecture.

Term end exam
