Welcoming New Students April 11th

Three new students joined the Japanese school. They are G4 Maya Nepaulsingh, G5 Yuka Miyata, and G6 Yuna Nepaulsingh. Ms. Nepaulsingh were born in the UK, and raised in Japan. Ms. Miyata is from Chiba Prefecture. Let's be good friends with them.

New Teachers' Arrival Ceremony April 11th

The followings are new teachers' name, hometown, hobby, homeroom.
Teachers dispatched by MEXT:
Mr. Ryuichi Yamamoto (Fukuoka, Rugby and Dance, G5) Mr. Yosuke Kizu (Tokyo, Golf and sports, G2) Mr. Hidekazu Arashiro (Osaka, born in Okinawa, Soccer, G3.4) Mr. Taku Matsuda (Hyogo, Track and Field, Sprint, G9)
NPO: Mr. Daisuke Sato (Saitama, Calligraphy, Emirati students)

The message from new teachers, "We will be the bridge between Heisei and Reiwa (Japanese era names)" was very powerful.

Opening Ceremony

April 11th

The principal talked about the Japanese sayings such as "New Year's Day is the key of the whole year" (and for school, April 1st is the new year's day) and "Do your own things on your responsibility." Then new homeroom teachers were announced. G6 is Mr. Katsunori Kusumi from Hokkaido. The principal Akihiko Kajiyama is from Fukuoka. And the vice principal is Mr. Akira Hayakawa from Shizuoka. G6 students' resolution of the year were also impressive.
